The general map sheets is filled with inset maps that were thought to be geopolitically relevant "in case of war". These include: Asia, Korean, Across the Arctic from U.S.A to U.S.S.R., Israel, U.S.S.R. in Europe, and Air Distance Map of the World. On the back was a map of the World on Mercator's Projection and a Standard Map of Europe.

On the cover of the map is an illustration of jet fighters dogfighting around a mushroom cloud.

The group is reflective of the extreme anxiety that gripped the American consciousness during the height of the Cold War.
