Description:

The Holton Inter-Urban Railway Company was incorporated W. F. Holt in December, 1903.

The line connects El Centro with Holtville (a distance of about eleven miles) using standard gauge construction. The company carried both freight and passenger traffic and included put gas motor cars for carrying passengers, which had a special wheel attachment (the invention of W. F. Holt) permitting the cars to run either on the railroad track or on the public streets and highways.
