Description:

Highly detailed map of the region from Vandermaelen's Atlas Universel, the first atlas to systematically map the world in uniform scale. The map is a testament to the phenomenal effort Vandermaelen undertook to compile contemporary and highly detailed information from all parts of the world. This map shows counties, towns, roads, rivers, mountains, Indian Tribes and Villages, Forts, lakes, and other geographical details. In Missouri, which is covered to the Red and White Rivers, the Choctau and Cherokee Lines are shown. Tennessee is shown to Dyer, Carroll and Rutherford Counties. Western Florida includes Cambia County. Most all of Alabama & Louisiana are shown. One of the best large format regional maps of the early 19th Century. A nice example, with very slight toning to the paper.
