Description:

Rare separately issued map of Poland, published by Giacomo Rossi.

Rossi's maps are often based on the cartography of Nicolas Sanson, although the present example gives credit to Nicolas's son, Guillaume Sanson.

This map was followed by a similar map by Neapolitan mapmaker Paolo Petrini, which also credits Guillaume Sanson. It is clearly a copy of the present map and can be seen here: <https://www.raremaps.com/gallery/detail/52936>

There is another edition of the map with the date updated to 1688.

A nice example of this rare map.

Detailed Condition:

Old hand-colored. Very minor repair of the centerfold at upper edge, just past the neatline. Overall a very nice example.
