Highly detailed map of the German Empire, extending from the Rhine in the west to the Baltic in the North, to Russia in the east and the Danube and Adriatic in the South. Maximum Germany. Highly detailed. Shows towns, road, rivers, lakes, mountains, islands, bays, points, etc. A key shows the name of 34 Sovereign Princes. Beginning in the early 19th Century, Lapie was one of the leading French mapmakers, at a time when much of the great exploration and travel literature was being published in French. Lapie was often the engraver of maps which were included in these books. As a result, he often incorporated the most recent information and discoveries in his maps, often appearing prior to the official report from which the information derived. His maps are now prized for their detail, accuracy and attractive engraving style.
