Description:

Detailed map of Poland, by Tobias Mayer, dated 1773 in the title cartouche.

Poland extends from Glogau and Breslau in the west, to Braclaviensis in the south along the Dniestr River, east to the Dniepr River and Mscislaw and north to include parts of Lithuania, although Curland separates Poland from the Lithuanian Sea.

A marvelous, highly detailed map, engraved at one of the most fascinating periods in Polish history.
