Description:

Remarkable large format map of Alabama, Mississippi & Louisiana, from Finley's New American Atlas.

The map presents an excellent look at the 3 states shortly after their admission into the Union. The northern part of each state is dominated by oversized early counties and regions which were still in the hands of various Indian Tribes, including the Cherokees and Upper Creeks in Alabama and the Choctaw and Chickasaws in Mississippi. General Jackson's Road is shown, as are the Robinson Road and the Old Natchez Road in Mississippi. A number of early Indian Agency's are shown along the various northern roads. A fabulous example of this scarce map.

Second state, after the first state of 1826.

Detailed Condition:

Original covers. Two minor fold splits. Minor discoloration where joined to cover.
