Description:

Remarkable map of the Texas Coast, from just south of Laredo and the Rio Grande to just East of the Sabine, including the entire Texas Coastline.

The barrier islands and bays are well depicted and there are some early settlements shown in the interior. From just before the arrival of Austin. The lengthy note is based upon the observations of Humboldt.

From Vandermaelen's remarkable 6 volume atlas, which if combined as globe gores forms an immense globe. Vandermaelen accomplished the first atlas mapping of the world on a uniform scale. His treatment of the Western US is a landmark in the history the cartography of the Western US, undertaking to map in 20 sheets a region which American publishers were virtually ignoring.
