Description:

Attractive vintage pictorial folding pamphlet map of Pensacola and part of the Florida Panhandle.

The decorative map highlights Pensacola's history; the map has the Spanish, French, U.S., British, and Confederate flags flying above the city. Vignettes at the bottom relate to Pensacola's discovery by Diego Miruelo in 1516, an account of which is on the back of the map.

Six golf courses are shown on the map as are historic forts, a casino, etc.

Detailed Condition:

Folding pamphlet.
