Description:

Detailed plan of San Diego showing streets, buildings, train lines, public places, rivers, etc. Includes Balboa Park, the Orphan's Home Tract and red lines showing street car lines.

Cram was one of the pre-eminent American mapmakers of the late 19th Century, relying upon a cerographic printing process first applied to maps by the Morse family in the late 1830s, which ultimately led to the demise of the handcolored map.
