Description:

A fantastic group of autographs from the Golden Age of Sail, including Royal Navy officers active during the French and Indian War, the American Revolution, and the War of 1812.

The album was probably composed by a devotee of British naval history in the 1830s. The album includes 50 autographs, the vast majority of which are from Admirals of the Royal Navy who served during its most distinguished and famous period.

The album includes signatures of important American Revolutionary War figures such as Admiral Edward Pellew, who was at Saratoga under Burgoyne, and Admiral Sir Charles Cotton who was active in the Boston and Long Island Campaigns. Rear-Admiral Sir Pulteney Malcolm, whose signature is on page 12, had an illustrations career saw him in Washington in 1814, in command of forces who burned down many public buildings including the White House. His career concluded with him guarding Napoleon on St. Helena.
