Description:

One of the earliest printed maps of Florida Territory, preceded only by several rare Tanner maps. Shows only 2 counties, Escambia and St Johns. Mythical St Johns river is still present, running nearly the length of the Territory. 17x21 sheet w/text. Minor fold stain from the poor glue employed at the time and minor staining at the outer extremities of the text, else a nice example, substantially marked down to address the condition problems.
