Description:

Silicon Valley Before it was Silicon Valley

Scarce Atlas of Lithograph Views and Colored Maps of Santa Clara County

A beautiful visual record of 19th century Santa Clara County, with lithographic views of residences and farms, as well as fine hand-colored maps depicting individual plots of land, city maps of San Jose, Gilroy, Mountain View, Los Gatos, and other locations.

The lithographic views are notable as important historical records of the built and natural environments of San Jose, Gilroy, Los Gatos, and other towns in Santa Clara County. They include depictions of prominent residences, colleges, and civic buildings, with a double-page view of the workings at the New Almaden Mine.

At the end of the volume are "Business directories" for the various towns in Santa Clara County. These directories are actually simple alphabetical listings of businesses in San Jose, Redwood Township,
