

Barry Lawrence Ruderman
Antique Maps Inc.

7407 La Jolla Boulevard
La Jolla, CA 92037

www.raremaps.com

(858) 551-8500
blr@raremaps.com

(Iroquois Village, etc)

Stock#: 70206
Map Maker: Lahontan
Date: 1703
Place: Paris
Color: Uncolored
Condition: VG
Size: 3.5 x 5 inches
Price: SOLD

Description:

Striking Illustration of an Iroquois Battle Scene from the Work of Lahontan

Interesting engraving depicting the forest near an Iroquois village, with several lines of soldiers facing off.

Upon a hill, toward the top of the engraving, are Iroquois warriors awaiting French soldiers. They are laying an ambush, according the notes included. They are facing off against regular French troops, local militia, and tribes friendly to the French.

Barry Lawrence Ruderman
Antique Maps Inc.

7407 La Jolla Boulevard
La Jolla, CA 92037

www.raremaps.com

(858) 551-8500
blr@raremaps.com

---

(Iroquois Village, etc)

The engraving illustrated Lahontan's famous travel account of 1703.

Detailed Condition: