Description:

Nice example of the 1666 edition of Henry Seile's map of America, first published in 1652.

The map has been re-engraved by Robert Vaughan at the direction of Seile's widow Anæ, making it the earliest map to show California as an Island published by a woman.

The map is very similar to the earlier map by Henry, although the nomenclature of the Delaware River, Carolina and several places on the west coast have been changes.

'A marvelous early American map.

Detailed Condition:

Minor dampstaining at bottom and minor stain at bottom right corner.
