Description:

General Map of The Mexican Republic Published By Garcia Cubas

Fine example of Garcia Cubas's decorative general map of Mexico, published in 1858.

This scarce map of Mexico appeared in Antonio Garcia y Cubas' monumental Atlas Geographico, Estadistico e Historico de la Republica Mexicana, the first atlas of the Mexican Republic. The map would go on to become a model for Garcia Cubas's monumental wall map of Mexico, published in 1863.

Includes two finely lithographed views:

- Mountains of Mexico: Organos de Actopan, Iztaccihuatl, Cofre de Perote, Popocatepetl, Montanas de Jacal, Orizava, Cascada de Regla
- Monuments of Mexico: Palenque, Piramide de Papantla, Mitla, Uxmal. Inset charts: Comparacion de los principales rios de la Republica

At the center is coat of arms of Mexico (Eagle and Snake).

Antonio Garcia y Cubas was Mexico's first great map maker and his work is highly sought after. Only 300 examples of the atlas were reportedly printed and separate maps rarely appear on the market.
