Description:

Detailed map of India, published by William Allen & Company in London.

The map focuses on the routes through the country between major towns and points of interest. Also notes Military Stations, Post Offices, Post and Bangy Roads.

Includes 3 large distance tables for the Bombay Presidency, Madras Presidency and Bengal & Agra.

The map includes a note at the bottom left corner stating that it was "Engraved by the Omnigraph, F. P. Becker & Co. Patentees." This was a patented process for printing letters.

Rarity

This is the first state of the map. All states of the map are apparently quite scarce.
