Rare First State

Highly detailed route map of the Pacific Electric Railway, extending from the San Fernando Valley to Laguna Beach and East to Redlands and Riverside.

A fascinating depiction of Southern California during the high point of light rail transportation. Hundreds of train stops shown, along with many towns that either no longer exists or which have been absorbed by neighboring cities.

At the bottom right, an inset shows the fares for day trips to Mt. Lowe, the Old Mission Balloon Route and the "Orange Empire" (Redlands and the Mission Inn), and other tourist suggestions.
