Description:

Original 1969 vintage poster celebrating the 200th anniversary of the founding of the Mission Basilica San Diego de Alcalá, the predecessor of modern-day San Diego, by the Spanish in 1769.

The poster features a Spanish galleon, perhaps a rendition of Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo's San Salvador; a missionary and conquistador; the skyline of downtown San Diego; and the California Tower of Balboa Park.

The poster's artist, France Carpentier, was active in the 1960s and was associated with artwork of the California Missions.
