Description:

One of the most arresting of the U.S. World War II propaganda poster images, here in the smaller format edition.

The poster features the muzzles of artillery pieces, each emblazoned with the flag of one of the Allied powers, firing away in unison.

The poster art was done by Henry Koerner and it was published by the Office of War Information in 1943.

Please note there are multiple editions of this poster, with the more common, this is the smallest edition.
