Description:

Original vintage poster issued for Santa Barbara's Old Spanish Days festival in the summer of 1962.

The first Old Spanish Days historical parade took place in Santa Barbara in 1924, and the events continue to this day. The present poster is one of the emblematic images of the celebration, as it was repeated in different variations for several years, seemingly throughout the 1960s.

Detailed Condition:

Archivally mounted on modern poster linen. A few repairs to the edges, namely in the upper-right corner.
