Description:

Scarce yellow map of Seattle, published by Pantorium Dye Works in 1912.

The map extends north to the City limits beyond Green Lake and east to Lake Washington, with 6 mile radius illustrated from the center point at Times Square.

Includes interesting booster text promoting Seattle industry, etc. The verso includes images of the interior of the Pantorium Dye Works and a street index.

The map is similar to later maps by Kroll with a green tint, but the center of this map is southwest of the later Kroll maps.
