Description:

A nice example of the second edition of Bradford's map of Arkansas.

The map is hand-colored by counties and shows very early railroads, towns, rivers, forts, post offices, and other details.

Bradford's atlas was a departure from other atlases of the period.

The 1830s were a fascinating transitional period in the US and in domestic cartographic publishing. Bradford's work is without question an important part of this era.

This map was engraved by G.W. Boynton.

Original hand-color in full.
