Attractive antique map of Fort Weixelmund, in Little Pomerania, made for John Luffman's delightful pocket atlas, the "Select plans..." The Fort is at the mouth of the Vistula River, in what is now Poland near Gdansk.

Luffman's Select Plans is an uncommon traveler's guide that served to educate the intrepid traveler regarding any part of the world, from the major cities of Europe to the wild coasts of the Spice Islands. Each of Luffman's maps contained detailed coastal descriptions showing the major landmarks and cities, as well as basic but necessary navigational information. This plate appeared in the first of Luffman's two volumes.
