Description:

Attractive original antique map of north-central Russia, originally appearing in Vandermaelen's Atlas.

The map shows the Ob River, which, with the Irtysh, forms the seventh-longest river system in the world. A little-mapped, lake-dotted landscape is visible to the northeast.

Vandermaelen's monumental Atlas accomplished was the first atlas to map the world on a uniform scale. Published in six volumes, each sheet could be combined as individual gores to complete an immense globe.

Detailed Condition:

Original hand-color.
