Description:

Mount Soledad as a Horse Riding Playground.

Detailed early city map of La Jolla, with excellent promotional photos and an aerial view on the verso.

There are a number of allusions to 1947, suggesting the map was made in that year or the next.

In addition to the aerial photograph of La Jolla, the verso also includes photos captioned: "Girard Avenue - La Jolla's Main Shopping District", "La Jolla's internationally Famous Swimming Cove", "La Jolla Woman's Clubhouse", "Beautiful Scripps Park Above the Cove".

Other than some of the first blocks in the Muirlands and Country Club neighborhoods, there is very little development on Mount Soledad; most of it is crisscrossed by bridle trails.

A fine early promotional item.
