Description:

Finely executed sea chart of the Black Sea, published by the French Depot de La Marine under the direction of Jacques Nicolas Belin.

Issued in the year of Bellin's death, the map appeared in his Hydrographie Francoise, the most modern and up to date sea atlas of the time.

Published early in the century long Russian-Circassian war, the map captures the area which Russia sought for more than 100 years to control and dominate.
