Description:

Antique engraved view of Ostia, the historical port of Rome at the mouth of the Tiber, with the Castello prominent. The map is delicately engraved, with many superfluous features shown such as the reflection of the Castello in the river and the shadows projected by boats.

The hills which are located to the west of Rome are visible in the background of this map, shown forested. This map was produced by Matthaus Merian and printed by his sons who took over the publishing business after his death.

Detailed Condition:

Minor dampstain in lower right and left margins of map.
