Description:

Interesting map of America, featuring the remnants of the sea of the west and a NW passage via river through an early lake Winnipeg. 16 ships and decorative cartouche. Brion De La Tour and Desnos combined to produce a series of marvelous decorative atlases in the mid to late 18th Century. The atlas was a component work, with 10 x 10 maps and varying borders and text, depending upon how much the buyer was willing to pay. This is the decorative deluxed edition, with the attractive picture frame border. Minor fold split, else a very nice example.
