Description:

Original antique engraving of the Portuguese city of Braga, by the best viewmakers of the 16th century, Georg Braun and Frans Hogenberg.

The view centers on the "Temple maximum", the large church at the middle of the town. The town itself is surrounded by walls and a river flows just below it.

Extensive captions in Latin explain the history of the city and the image.

The view was first published in 1594, this edition is from circa 1600, and is dated based on the text on the verso.

Detailed Condition:

Original hand-color in full. Some toning and offsetting. German text on verso.
