Description:

Detailed regional map centered on the Danube River, published in London by Emanuel Bowen in the mid-18th century for his A Complete System of Geography.

The map extends from the Gulf of Venice to well north of Prague and from Augsburg and Regensburg to Pressburg. The map shows a large part of central Europe in extensive detail, naming cities and showing rivers, lakes, and other geographical features.

The map includes a decorative compass rose and a cartouche showing a hunting scene.
