Description:

Attractive colorful bird's-eye view map of the Gulf Coast between Apalachicola and New Orleans issued to promote the routes of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

The map shows how travelers of the 1920s could access the vacation destinations of the northern Gulf of Mexico using the L&NRR routes and their connections.

The pamphlet is fairly scarce. Apparently, no copies are recorded in OCLC. A later edition was also issued: <https://www.raremaps.com/gallery/detail/76709>

Detailed Condition:

Folding pamphlet stapled at the center. Worm track damage to the covers, as illustrated.
