Description:

Fine original antique map showing the layout of the harbor of Alexandria, in Egypt.

The map shows the easily recognizable layout of the city of Alexandria, with the double-harbor structure showing the old and new port. The walls of the ancient city of Alexandria are visible, with the Pompei's Column to the west. Soundings and other information is provided at sea.

This attractive map was published in Paris as part of Nicolas Bellin's Le Petit Atlas Maritime, one of the great collections of maritime sea charts of the eighteenth century.
