Description:

One of the earliest obtainable railroad maps of Utah, published by George Cram in Chicago in the 1880s.

Shows railroads, towns, cities, mountain ranges, and Indian reservations of that time. Many railroad stations along the Wasatch Front are named, including "Provo City", Weber, Park City, Salt Lake City, Morgan, "Ogden City", Box Elder, etc.

From Cram's Standard American Railway Atlas, one of the scarcest and most sought after of all American atlases of the period.
