Description:

Hand-colored engraved map of the world by Thomas Gamaliel Bradford, in the scarce 1846 variant (reading "Corrected to 1846." below the image.)

As the map was published in 1846, it features Texas as an entity separate from the United States or Mexico, with Houston and San Felipe de Austin prominently displayed.

Hints of Antarctic coastline are slowly filling in.

Detailed Condition:

Original hand-colo by continent. A halo of offsetting around both hemispheres. Faint even toning.
