Description:

Scarce large folding map of the State of Maine, issued by the Colton firm in 1874.

The map was probably first issued in 1871 during the G.W. & C.B. Colton vogue for large, vibrant folding maps of the states. J.H. Colton issued a similar large map of Maine in the 1850s.

Though the map is scarce today, it was published by the Colton's for around 20 years; Harvard has an example dated 1891.

This is one of the best maps of Maine from the latter half of the 19th century.

Detailed Condition:

Original hand-color by county. Folding map. Original embossed cloth covers. Minor dampstain and wear at fold intersections (as illustrated).
