Description:

Interesting map of California and the southwestern United States, hand-colored by county and showing a number of interesting territorial anomalies.

Nevada is no longer truncated, correctly placing Las Vegas in Nevada. In each of the states and territories, the county configurations are still largely incomplete. The former counties of Mesilla and Santa Anna appear in New Mexico and the former county of Kalamth in California, with its original county seat of Trinidad.

It includes explorers' routes, the major routes of commerce, towns, forts, Indian tribes, mountains, rivers, roads, mining districts, proposed railroad routes, and important dates in the evolution of the US-Mexico Boundary, etc.

Johnson's map of the West is one of the most interesting and collectible maps of the period. The maps were updated annually or more often, showing profound territorial boundary changes and county formations from year to year and even within a single year.

A comprehensive collection of maps of the American West is incomplete without a good run of these maps.
