Description:

Folding tourist map of the Florida Keys provided by the Monroe County Advertising Commission. It was prepared by E. J. Scheaffer & Assoc. Advertising, based in Miami, Florida, and likely created in the 1980s.

The map features a general map on the front, covering the area from Key Largo to Crawl Key, and another from Marathon to Key West on the verso. Additionally, specific maps of Key West and Marathon can be found on the verso.

This "treasure map" is packed with extensive text and labeling, offering a wealth of information for visitors. It is printed in black and white and includes illustrations of birds and other local wildlife. This map serves as an excellent resource for anyone planning a vacation in the Florida Keys or Key West, offering insights into the area's attractions and natural beauty.
