Description:

Fine large format map of Arizona, published just after Arizona became a state.

The map locates American Indian Reservations, National Forests, Parks, and other public lands throughout the state. The reservations are highlighted in yellow and include the Papago, Apache, Navajo, Pima, Gila River, Salt River and others. Various national forests are noted, aptly colored green and include the Crook, Sitgreaves, Apache, Tusayan, Prescott, and Kaibab. The Grand Canyon National Park is highlighted in pink.

Includes small town plans of Phoenix and Tucson.

The map also notes railroads, mines, rivers, gulches, mountain ranges, etc.
