Description:

London From Greenwich Park

"Vue de Londres, prise du parc de Greenwich" presents a breathtaking birdseye view of London, as seen from the serene hillside surroundings of Greenwich Park. The meticulous depiction paints a vibrant picture marvelous image of London from a distance, contrasting the urban sprawl with the park's idyllic scenery.

Dominating the scene is the iconic River Thames, teeming with a multitude of ships. The winding path of the Thames appears in the distance.

In the immediate foreground, the verdant slopes of Greenwich Park provide a tranquil counterpoint to the distant hustle and bustle. Four stately deer are depicted grazing at ease, symbolizing the park's pastoral charm and harking back to a time when nature held dominion on the city's fringes.
