Description:

An excellent early state map of Pennsylvania, published in Finley's General Atlas.

The map is hand-colored by county, showing towns, roads, rivers, mountains, and other features. The Appalachians are clearly visible running through the state from northeast to southwest, and these are crisscrossed and followed by roads. Detail extends slightly into New York, New Jersey, Virginia, Maryland, and Ohio.

Detailed Condition:

Original hand-color. Minor soiling.
