Description:

Attractive antique map of the world showing the routes of numerous 18th- and 19th-century explorers and voyages, including Cook, Furneaux, Vancouver, the USS Vincennes, La Perouse, Resolution, etc., with the years of the relevant journey. Colored by country and region.

The first signs of the Antarctic Coast are shown. While the world is now taking a nearly final shape, the geopolitical borders are still evolving in this interesting mid-19th century world map.

Detailed Condition:

Original hand-color. Very minor edge wear. Very minor centerfold tone.
