Description:

A decorative map of America, featuring California as an island on the Sanson projection and early hints of Northern Australia. Open ended Great Lakes. The Mississippi River is pushed far west of its actual course. The Straits of Anian appear. The southwest is dominated by Indian details. An interesting oversized South America retains the influences of De Wit, Visscher and predecessors. Two wonderful decorative cartouches. The map is trimmed close a the top and the margin extended for framing, with a small nick or two in the outer neatline. Ordinarily a $3000.00 map. McLaughlin 120, Tooley 56.
