Description:

Rand McNally's two-sheet map of Virginia, a fine large-format depiction of the state.

This map shows the state in great detail, with a particular focus on the 19th-century railroads, which are enumerated to the left of the map. The state is of such proportions that the western part of the map is included in an inset in the upper right. Many cities, towns, rivers, and other features also appear.

This map was published in 1896 in Rand McNally's Enlarged Business Commercial Atlas.

Detailed Condition:

Light stain to the left of the centerfold.
