Description:

Very rare 1827 reissue (from the same but modified copperplate) of the engraving of the Falls of the Passaic, from the famous Scenographia Americana series, based upon a drawing by Governor Thomas Pownall, colonial governor of Massachusetts.

In the 1827 Richard Holmes Laurie version of the print, the plate has been burnished and cut down to reduce the size of the image.

This version of the print is quite rare - evidently much rarer than the 18th-century original printing.

Detailed Condition:

Ample margins. Repaired tears on the right side of the print - though mostly marginal.
