Description:

Finely colored example of John Cary's map of Poland, showing the dismemberment of the Kingdom of Poland.

The map is colored by Palatinates, with an annotation in the lower right corner noting that the dates in the body of the map signify the years in which the divisions took place. The map is extremely detailed and includes a number of roads, towns, rivers, and other details.
