Description:

Anchorage to Kodiak Island in the 18th Century

Highly detailed regional sea chart of a portion of Alaska from Kodiak to Anchorage and Cook Inlet, based upon Vancouver's original surveys.

The chart is one of the sectional charts from the French edition of Vancouver's Voyages and comprise the first detailed printed maps of the regions covered.

Finely engraved, large-scale chart showing Alaska from Mt. St. Elias in the east to the eastern side of Kenai Peninsula to include the small Chiswell Islands in the Blying Sound, including Valdez and Anchorage. Includes a good representation of the interior mountainous terrain. Shows great detail of Prince William Sound with numerous fiords and islands including Montague. Inset of "Plan du Port
