Description:

Fine original antique map of the Lorraine region of France, published in 1661 by Nicolas Sanson in Paris.

The map shows the central part of the region of Lorraine, including the cities of Verdun, Nancy, Toul, Thionville, and Metz. Geographical detail includes forests and hydrography. Bridges over waterways are shown, and topography is shown pictorially.

A large French school cartouche in the lower left is provided, as are a scale bar and short legend.

Detailed Condition:

Original hand-color, in outline. Minor fold toning and toning to edges.
