While the map would seem to come from a guide book from the period, this is unconfirmed. Haskell located two examples of the map with this title in guide books in the New York public library.

Rarity

We note two examples, New York Public Library and American Geographical Society (University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee). Both given tentative dating and were unable to identify the source.

The NYPL example is in two pieces, pasted on both sides of support paper.

No copies in OCLC.
