Description:

Fine original antique map of the German-Dutch border in the vicinity of the cities of Coeverdorn and Lingen. This attractive 18th-century map was published by Leonard Valk and Peter Schenk in Amsterdam at the end of the 16th century and represents an attractive and detailed mapping of the area.

The map shows many towns, cities, roads, rivers, forests, mountains, and more. The political divisions are indicated by the coats of arms spread throughout the map. The map includes a decorative cartouche in the lower right with a title, legend, and scale bar.

The map is orientated with east at the top of the map. Cities shown include Coeverdorn, Lingen, Schuttorf, and Lingen.

Detailed Condition:

Original hand-color, in outline. Minor soiling to margins.
